COMPANY

In the past, the master and expert of the secrets of porcelain was known as “arcanista”. In Arcana Cerámica we want to recover through our name this key figure in the history of ceramics.

Founded in 1997, Arcana sells floor, wall and porcelain tiles. Currently, we are present in the five continents.

Thanks to our wide experience and internationality we can offer our clients the best solution. Arcana Cerámica means professionalism, service, innovation and quality. These are the reasons why more and more clients rely on us.

PHILOSOPHY

With a philosophy based on absolute dedication to work, at ARCANA our main objective is to offer all our customers the highest possible quality. This is why the variety and beauty of our ceramic collections go hand in hand with fast, effective customer service and guaranteed solutions. Providing support for all this work is an excellent human resources team fully versant with our modern installations and the latest advances in technology. Our efficient organisation, guaranteeing control of all administration and management processes, has consolidated ARCANA's international expansion and presence on all five continents.
