Complementary contrasts

Spuma & Mousse, two collections designed to contrast harmoniously. Two separate identities of disparate and independent beauty, they add style and personality, and delicately enrich the spaces where they co-exist.

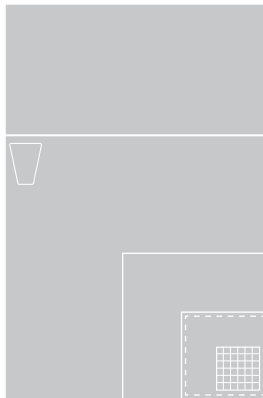

Mousse, so relaxed and discreet, with its subtle appeal and contemporary charm, provides the logical counterpoint to Spuma, with its daring creativity and non-conformist beauty, resulting in a perfect contrast.

These two porcelain tile collections, which are available in multiple tones and formats, ranging from large 120x120 cm. pieces to small 8x31.5 cm. tiles and a white body tile in 45x120 cm. complete a ceramic offer so original and varied that will fuel your imagination.
